For lovers of winter sports, dreams come true at the five-star superior hotel, Thurnher's Alpenhof. With its 38 rooms and suites, as well as five exclusive serviced apartments, it's a place to relax and enjoy extravagant, luxurious and of unparalleled kindness and personal service from the heart.

Those who spend a few days or even weeks here will feel as if they're surrounded by family and friends, because the wellbeing of guests combined with a familiar atmosphere is the first commandment at the hotel. Every wish is fulfilled: the organisation of lift tickets, ski instructors, ski service, babysitters, airport transfers or even the unpacking and packing of suitcases.

The hotel is situated at an altitude of 5,650ft, directly next to the lifts and slope. It's the perfect starting point from which to explore Austria's biggest ski resort with its 190 miles of groomed slopes and 125 miles of off-piste together with the hotel's complimentary in-house ski guide, Roman.

After a day out on the slopes, the spa exudes soothing warmth and comfort with its indoor pool, saunas and various massage treatments.

Best of all, the hotel offers a daily changing multi-course gourmet menu featuring a mix of Austrian traditional and international haute cuisine, along with a wide selection of local and foreign wines.
